

SERVICE

Pensions and Benefits Litigation

Osler's pension and benefits litigators provide clients with unparalleled expertise in this area.

Related Expertise

- Corporate and Commercial Disputes
- Pensions and Benefits

Osler's pension litigation experience is extensive, particularly on the plan sponsor and administrator side. Our litigators have been involved in many of the leading pension cases before the courts and tribunals across the country.

Our representation of sponsors of multi-jurisdictional plans has led to appearances in major pension litigation in Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, Alberta and British Columbia and frequent interaction with regulators in all of the other provinces.

We have successfully combined the skills of solicitors in our Pension and Benefits Department with those of our litigators who specialize in pension cases and class actions to provide clients with unparalleled expertise in this area.

Ask Osler's pension and benefits litigators about:

- Member /retiree class actions;
- Funding disputes;
- Validity of plan amendments;
- Fiduciary duties of plan administrators;
- Obligations under pensions legislation;
- Plan wind-up;
- Life/medical post-retirement benefits;
- Plan/statutory interpretations issues;
- Insolvency and restructuring;
- Liability of actuaries;
- Investment issues;
- Family property and valuation issues;
- Surplus entitlement;
- Contribution holidays.

Key Contacts

David Stamp
Partner, Disputes, Toronto

Julien Ranger
Partner, Pensions and Benefits, Montréal

Awards and Recognition

- Chambers Canada: Canada's Leading Lawyers for Business: Recognized in Pensions & Benefits (Band 1)
 - "They are technically strong, ensure excellent, timely service delivery, are extremely knowledgeable and maintain excellent communication throughout the job."
 - "They have extremely deep knowledge of the substantive law in this area which is complemented by an equally deep understanding of the taxation of pension plans."
- The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory: Recognized in Pensions & Employee Benefits (Montréal, Québec; Toronto, Ontario)
 - Lexpert Magazine, the country's leading legal journal, calls Osler one of two market leaders in pension plan administration matters, where "the pure pension law expertise largely resides."
- The Legal 500: Osler recognized in Pensions (Tier 1)