Chiedozie is a bilingual Juris Doctor student in the English Common Law program at the University of Ottawa. During his first year, he participated in the 18th annual Nelligan First-Year Moot. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with distinction from the University of Calgary

Before beginning his legal studies, Chiedozie worked as a Technical Writing Intern at Interra Energy Services, where he developed clear and practical procedures from complex technical information. He has also held roles with Kadibia Properties Ltd. and TJ Maxx.

Outside of his academic and professional pursuits, Chiedozie is a dedicated creative entrepreneur. He has written more than 50 original songs and has produced musical projects across multiple genres, with work centered on themes of empowerment and resilience. He also speaks regularly to youth groups on leadership, empowerment and personal development.
