

Esohe Edogun

Avenue Intern

Vancouver

(236) 429-2810

eedogun@osler.com

Esohe has completed her third year of undergraduate studies at The University of British Columbia (UBC). She is majoring in International Relations with a focus on international diplomacy, security and peace studies. And minoring in African Studies with a focus on pre and post colonial history.

Outside of academics, Esohe is currently president for AIESEC in UBC which is a global youth lead organisation centred on leadership development and fostering cross cultural exchange. Additionally, Esohe also serves on the national level for AIESEC Canada where she is part of the Minimum Standards Audit Team. Charged with conducting audits for 8 different AIESEC chapter in Canada, ensuring alignment on the national membership code.

Awards and Recognition

- Beyond Tomorrow Scholarship Award (2023)
- UBC's IRSA & PSSA Canadian Undergraduate Policy Competition (CUPC), 3rd Place (2024)
- UBC's B+MM Undergraduate Moot Court Competition, 1st Place (2025)

Community Involvement

- AIESEC Canada, Minimum Standards Audit Team (2026)
 - AIESEC is a non-governmental not-for-profit organization in consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), affiliated with the UN DPI, member of ICMYO, and is recognized by UNESCO.

- AIESEC in UBC, President (2026), Vice-President of Talent Management (2025), Team Leader of Incoming Global Talent (2024)
 - UBC Black Future Lawyers Association, Co-President (2025-26), Vice President Academics (2024-25)
 - Greater Saskatoon Catholic School Board of Directors, Student Representative (2021-23)
-

Credentials

Education

- University of British Columbia, B.A., 2027 (anticipated).

.....

Languages

- English
- German