Jenna has completed her second year of law school at the University of Ottawa. Prior to law school, she obtained a Master of Science in Medical Biophysics from the University of Toronto and a Bachelor of Health Sciences in Biomedical Sciences at the University of Calgary.

During her time at law school, Jenna has explored her interest in intellectual property and technology law through working at the Samuelson-Glushko Canadian Internet Policy and Public Interest Clinic as a research assistant and acting on the executive committee of the Space Law Society. She hopes to expand her knowledge in these fields while studying abroad in Scotland this upcoming fall term.
