

Michelle Jun

Articling Student

.....

Vancouver

(236) 466-2860

mjun@osler.com

.....

Michelle completed her J.D. at Queen’s University, Faculty of Law. Prior to law school, she obtained a Bachelor of Medical Laboratory Sciences at the University of British Columbia and worked in various healthcare settings.

During her studies, Michelle was actively involved with Queen’s Legal Aid and received the Dan Soberman Award for her excellent file work and dedication to the community. She has interned at the Canadian Bar Association in the Strategic and International Initiatives Department and worked as a research assistant to Professor Lisa Kelly. Michelle also represented Queen’s University at the Clara Barton International Humanitarian Law Competition, hosted by the American Red Cross.

Awards and Recognition

- Best Application Brief, Clara Barton Competition
- Dan Soberman Award
- Global Law Scholarship
- Queen’s Law Prize in Armed Conflict & International Crime
- Torys Public Interest Summer Internship Award

Community Involvement

- Queen’s Legal Aid (2022-2025)
- Pro Bono Students Canada (2022-2024)

- Korean Canadian Women’s Association
-

Credentials

Education

- Queen’s University, J.D.
 - Queen’s University, Certificate in Public International Law, with Merit, 2023
 - University of British Columbia, Certificate in Early Years Education, 2022
 - University of British Columbia, Bachelor of Medical Laboratory Sciences, 2020
-

Languages

- English
 - Korean
-

Professional Affiliations

- Canadian Bar Association
- Federation of Asian Canadian Lawyers