Robert is a Juris Doctor candidate at the University of Calgary Faculty of Law (class of 2028). Prior to law school, he gained an extensive professional background in forensic auditing and financial investigations. Most recently he served as a forensic auditor for one of North America’s largest railway companies, where he conducted fraud investigations in Mexico under the supervision of legal counsel. Prior to that, Robert led fraud investigations and internal audits while working for one of Canada’s top four energy companies and a Big Four accounting firm.

Prior to his career as a Chartered Professional Accountant and Certified Fraud Examiner, Robert obtained his Bachelor of Arts in History from the University of Warwick, UK, and also earned a Master of Philosophy in Russian and East European Studies from the University of Oxford, UK.
