Yuval holds a Bachelor of Commerce from McGill University, where she majored in finance. While at McGill, she also developed a strong interest in computer science, earning a top performance award in two computer science courses and later returning to mentor students in the same courses. At Osgoode, she enjoys being involved in student government, having served as the first-year and then second-year representative. In the upcoming academic year, Yuval will serve as Co-President of Osgoode's Jewish Law Students Association and as a caseworker in Osgoode's Investor Protection Clinic.
