Pensions and Benefits

Alex is an associate in the Pensions and Benefits Group of our Toronto office. Prior to summering and articling at the firm, Alex studied law at the University of Windsor. Alex completed degrees in Mathematics and Economics, graduating with great distinction, and began his actuarial candidacy with the Society of Actuaries by completing numerous exams and other requirements.

While in law school, Alex volunteered at Windsor Law’s Community Legal Aid Clinic where he maintained files and represented clients with legal issues in the areas of landlord/tenant disputes, summary criminal convictions, and other small claims court matters

Alex joined Osler as a summer student in 2022 and completed his articles in 2024.
