Areas of Expertise

Pensions and Benefits

Brenda Carson has been a documentation consultant with the firm’s Pensions & Benefits Department for over fifteen years. Brenda has experience in pension and benefits plan design, drafting and compliance, as well as assisting clients with difficult administrative issues. Brenda also has experience as a pension committee member.

Brenda is also the Chair of the Pension Review Committee, which is an informal volunteer organization consisting of representatives from over 20 actuarial consulting firms, legal firms with pension practices and accounting firms, and which regularly consults and liaises with federal and provincial regulatory authorities on pension related matters.
