Areas of Expertise

Employment and Labour

Diana has a broad employment and labour practice and works with a wide range of clients in both the public and private sectors. She is known for her practical, strategic approach to complex mandates and regularly advises employers on high-risk terminations, sensitive workplace investigations, human rights and accommodation issues, workforce restructurings, varied labour matters, and day-to-day HR risk mitigation strategies.

Diana excels as an advocate; she has a strong aptitude for negotiating successful outcomes for her clients and routinely represents employers in employment disputes, employment litigation, grievance arbitrations, collective bargaining, and proceedings in a variety of forums, including civil court, the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario, the Ontario Labour Relations Board, and the Ministry of Labour.

Diana was recognized in the Chambers Canada Guide as an “Associate to Watch” in Employment & Labour (2024 and 2025).

Diana joined the firm as an associate in 2020, prior to which she articulated and was an associate at a pre-eminent employment and labour boutique.
